Welcome to our new series of Tea-Time Talks. The University is delighted to be able to celebrate its excellent research and teaching in this area for the benefit of the whole community.

The world's number one killer: “Can you save yourselves?”
5 May – Professor Andrew L Clark, MA, MD, FRCP, Chair of Clinical Cardiology, Hull York Medical School.

Worse than cancer: heart failure and the triumph of modern medicine
12 May – Professor Andrew L Clark, MA, MD, FRCP, Chair of Clinical Cardiology, Hull York Medical School.

Palliative Care for people with heart failure
19 May – Dr Amy Gadoud, NIHR Clinical Lecturer in Palliative Medicine, Hull York Medical School.

How understanding the family can help us target health interventions
26 May – Dr Julie Seymour, Senior Lecturer in Medical Sociology, Hull York Medical School.

Detecting cancer early
2 June – Professor Una Macleod, Professor of Primary Care Medicine, Centre for Health & Population Sciences, Hull York Medical School.
Dr Fiona Cowdell, DProf, MA, PGCE, BA(Hons), RN, Senior Research Fellow, Faculty of Health and Social Care, University of Hull.
Dr Judith Dyson, RGN, RMN, BS(Sci)(Hons), MSc, PhD, Lecturer in Mental Health, Faculty of Health and Social Care, University of Hull.

Child wellbeing: understanding children’s behaviour
9 June – Dr Annette Schlosser, Lecturer in Clinical Psychology, Department of Psychological Health and Wellbeing, University of Hull.

Impact of chronic pain: the example of headache disorders
16 June – Dr Lisa Dikomitis, Lecturer in Social Research, School of Social Sciences, University of Hull.
Mrs Victoria Quarshie, Headache Nurse Specialist, Department of Neurology, Hull Royal Infirmary.

Dementia: helping people to live well and rediscovering our communities
30 June – Mark Gretton, BA(Hons) MA, RGN, Lecturer in Nursing, Faculty of Health and Social Care, University of Hull and Senior Nurse, Elderly Assessment Unit, Hull Royal Infirmary.

The experiences, emotions and stressors of people living with an ileostomy
7 July – Johanna Spiers, Research Assistant, Department of Sport, Health and Exercise Science, University of Hull.

Living with shortness of breath
14 July – Professor Miriam Johnson, Professor of Palliative Medicine, Centre for Health & Population Sciences, Hull York Medical School.
Ms Ann Hutchinson, BSc, Postgraduate Research Student, Centre for Health & Population Sciences, Hull York Medical School.

All talks will take place on campus in Wilberforce Lecture Theatre 2 unless confirmed otherwise. Please check the website nearer the time. All talks will start at 6.15pm and will finish at approximately 7.45pm.

Places are limited so booking is essential. To book a place you can go online here you can call Nicola Sharp or Jackie McAndrew from LEAP on 01482 466321/466585 or you could email us at opencampus@hull.ac.uk, n.sharp@hull.ac.uk or jackie.mcandrew@hull.ac.uk.

For more information visit our website – www.hull.ac.uk/opencampus.

This series has been developed in collaboration with the Hull York Medical School, the Faculty of Health and Social Care, the Faculty of Science and Engineering, and the Faculty of Arts and Social Science.

The OpenCampus Programme is run by the Learning Enhancement and Academic Practice Directorate.